

I am concerned that your proposed regulation may weaken Indiana's no call law. Prior to the enactment of this law my wife and I would often receive 5 or more solicitation calls per day! We hated to hear the phone ring. Now, we receive almost no unwanted phone calls. The Indiana law has been very effective and I appeal to you not to pre-empt it with anything less restrictive.